

SOROPTOMISTS INTERNATIONAL OF NEW YORK CITY PRESENTS AN ART AUCTION

Featuring fully affordable art from the artists of WESTBETH - the historic arts residence and current home to over 200 visual artists.

50% of the proceeds will go to women and girls in need. The contributing artists will receive the other 50%.

When: Friday, May 1st at the WESTBETH Community Room. Viewing of art work from 3-6pm. Live auction from 6-8pm.

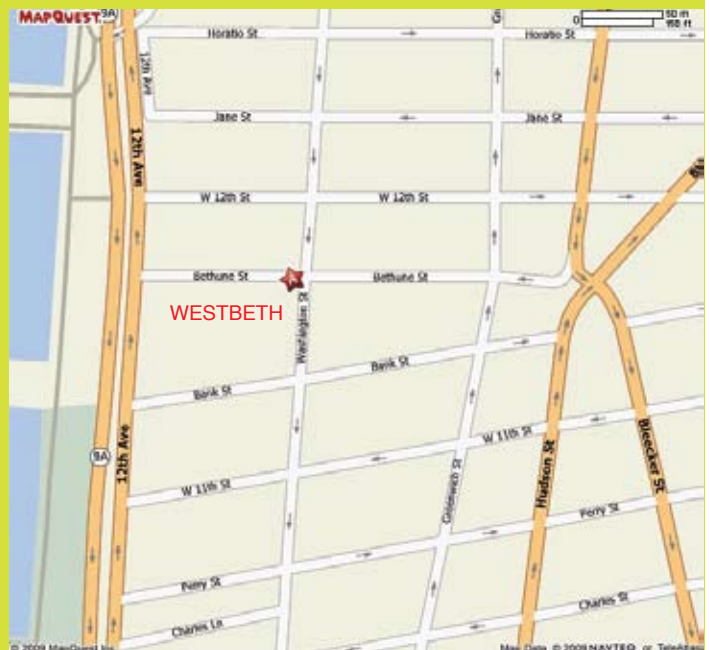

Where: WESTBETH 55 Bethune Street at Washington Street in the West Village, one block south of W. 12th in the meat market district.

Transportation: Street parking is available after 6pm in 8-6 zones. Alternate side parking in most areas. Subways that run close by are the A,E,C,L at 14th Street and Seventh Avenue, and 1,2,3 trains at 14th Street and Seventh Avenue. Walk down Seventh or Eighth Avenue to West 12th Street and turn right. Walk down West 12th Street to Washington Street. Turn left, walk one block to Bethune Street. WESTBETH Community Room is located in the inner courtyard, midway down the block.

Payment: Credit cards, cash, or checks will be accepted for payment for art. All payments are tax deductible.

Admission charge is $15.00.
Wine and Cheese will be served.
A bidding catalogue will provided.

For more information:
phone 212-242-1789
or visit www.sinyc.org

WESTBETH ARTISTS HOUSING
The World's Largest Artists Community

www.westbeth.org
55 Bethune Street, New York, NY 10014